Subject: Question

[REDACTED]

If and only if it's EASY and someone is likely to be in/near the bldg anyway...
- almost no toilet paper here... I can see if Duane Reed is open when I get back from the symposium opening tonight.... Not sure it will be, though.
- also, no salt or olive oil...

I wonder if I'm the first person to stay here in the BEAUTIFUL re-do. And it is beautiful! Furniture, fixtures, everything. Really, really nice.

Thank you! If not easy, just let me know that, too, and I'll see if I can get a break during the meeting or leave the evening program early to pick things up.

Thanks for everything!!

Xoxo
