Probably ok to ship a printer to liked James idea of having Best Buy deliver and install same day. Will need to be a weekend

I'm sure

Hi [REDACTED],

My home address in DC is:

[REDACTED]

It is fine to ship things there, but the only issue is that if there is signature required, then no one is there to sign if I am not home.

That said, I have stuff delivered there all the time and they leave it on the porch. I can have my neighbor bring it in if I am out of town.

K.
