Morning! Jason has not gotten back to me...I will follow up with him again! We should be just fine though...I am also asking if he can help organize a trip to the Grand Canyon..I would think the hotel can help with that...we will see!

Hi [REDACTED] am finally in touch with our contact in Vegas. He just reached out to me and is very happy to help. He is asking how many rooms you want and what kind of beds? I would think 2 king bedrooms? One room for your parents with a king bed and one room for you with a king bed. Yes?
