Completely agree!!! I am very happy to help facilitate your communication with Jeffrey! You have such a great attitude and a strong desire to be the best you can be! I can tell. I have to admit I was intimidated at first coming up to you and then the warm smile you gave me was soooo nice! I wish you all the best! (And I made my sons game! He is quarterback and had a super game as well as the whole team! We won 30-18!). Have a great night. [REDACTED]

You play a very important role in me getting to speak with Jeffrey and it feels much better now that I know who I'm communicating with via email. Hope you had a smooth flight back home and made it to your son's game in time. Have a blessed night until we speak again.
