Did he give you dates he wants to go? If so, I would make sure it is available for when he wants to go (which I believe is July 31-aug2). He always needs a one bedroom suite and an extra regular room for an assistant(s). Usually he wants the best room available at these sorts of places. (If it were, say, a regular hotel, he does not necessarily need the penthouse cause it is usually stupid money $$$$$) I give him a choice usually. He wants 5star for sure.

Hi Les -
JE asked for me to take a look at the top 3 places to stay. This is what I found but I'm not sure what he looks for in his stays.
