Subject: 301 apt

Hi [REDACTED]
Thanks for update on 301 apt,. No problem anyhow,. Bill and I took airlines home today,. (FYI,. We are using Bill Hammond our former pilot to help fly with me and Dave,. Helps with vacation time, and training, etc,.

PS: BIG favor to ask of you and JE,.
[REDACTED] my Army daughter spent last Month in Fort Knox completing her training,. This month she is in Fort Bragg North Carolina Shadowing a Base commander as part of her officer training, she's had a very busy summer and returns to finish her last year of Collage starting August 18th.,
I was going to treat her and send her to NYC July 29th - August 3rd for shopping and relaxation with Eileen.,
Is there any remote possibility that she could stay at 301 ?
I know 301 is booked with guest occupancy, but if one apt is open during that time frame, I'd really appreciate if she could stay?

Many thx in advance., keep me posted

Larry
