Dear Jeffrey,
as mentioned during our last telephone conversation, I would like to coordinate our meeting in Marrakech with some other meetings, in order to make it one journey only.

Ramadan starts on June 18 and lasts until July 19. In general, this is not a good time to visit Marrakech and/or for business there, as people tend to lack concentration and service is bad anywhere. After mid July, it becomes unbearably hot until approx. mid Sept.

I would therefore suggest that you plan your visit before June 18.

Regards,
Günter
