To Our Valued mbrace® Subscribers:

As part of our ongoing commitment to enhance the security of mbrace and protect your privacy, we want to inform you of some upcoming changes to the mbrace Mobile Application which our service provider, Verizon Telematics, will be making in the weeks ahead. More specifically, you will be prompted to upgrade your mobile app the next time you log in to access mbrace services.

Together with our partners at Verizon Telematics, we are continually working to enhance the mbrace service, of which security is a core component. We will keep you informed as further improvements are made to the services and to the mobile application.

If you have any questions please push the i-Button in your vehicle.

Sincerely,

Your mbrace Team
