Hi [REDACTED]
Thank you for reaching out to me with your questions. I would probably be able to better answer them over the phone and can share some general observations I have had during the test sessions with [REDACTED] efforts. Are you available for a brief call this afternoon around 3:30?

Thanks for considering,

Russ

Hello Russ. Wanted to let you know [REDACTED] will be in today. He actually was feeling much better by mid day yesterday.

Wanted to ask you about these tests the kids are taking...what are the results ultimately for? (Placement for next year? Or are these the standardized tests?) and [REDACTED] said he finished last Thursday, yet others are still taking the tests...? We are hoping he did not rush through! Is it possible he could be done while others are not? When is the last day of the test? Thanks so much! [REDACTED]
