Gmail is !34southbeach -- try quitting Mail.app and opening System Preferences > Internet Accounts and entering the password there.

My cell is [REDACTED] (for you & the boss only, please!). I'm getting dressed, so if the above doesn't work, let me know & I'll be right there.

H James. I am at the house and my gmail is not working. Keeps asking for my password. I put it in and it just asks me again. I would call you but realize I don't have your cell number! Can you help? Also can you give me you cell number? Jeffrey is expected shortly and I hope this is not a problem he will have with his gmail also. I am working off my phone!
