Gmail is !34southbeach

Please:

Quit mail

Enter that into System Preferences > Internet Accounts, then Reopen mail and when prompted for the password to send, tick the box that to remember the password.

I went in to system preferences and put in the P...9 password and it is still not working. This is worse than other issue cause now I have to email from my cell.

Oh boy. If it's not one thing it's another!

Now my emails are not going through. They sit in my outbox. Keeps asking me to verify my password. I restarted the computer but that is not doing the trick!
