excellent!! I will have a look at the documents right now! I have also sent them to each assistant and our attorney to look over and requested everyone get back to me no later than tonight US...

Sounds like Fed Ex is a pain! It will be fine for you to send all together in one package... I hope they pick up from you in a speedy manner for everyones sake!

I have checked with the Consulate and they are open all next week. Their next holiday is May 25th, Memorial Day. Thank you for bringing to my attention.

All the best, [REDACTED]
