HI [REDACTED]..so Jeffrey does not want you to be an authorized user on his Amex Travel account just yet...this only means you cannot book travel through American Express...you can however, use a travel website like we discussed the other day...such as Orbitz...

I'm sure you have used sites like this before...we can certainly go over it together if you like...you would just use the credit card you have instead of Jeffrey's ..or maybe Jeffrey gives you his to use if you are together...

I am here if you need me!
