A dear friend of mine, Michael Hall, he owns a townhouse on [REDACTED]
He has tremendous collection of everything...the kind of things you like...that I sold in the past...thought it would be great for you to meet Michael...I could be the intermediary...he wants to sell for $20,000 not millions...and these things would look great in your home...I know you like big grand things...you told me long ago that I am the voice of reason and you trusted me...maybe we can put something together...
