hmm, that is not what I heard. We need to speed this up...it was to be finished last week...I need to have [REDACTED] in livable conditions BEFORE the end of day tomorrow. I need it to be clean and [REDACTED] has to move in...I have guests in all the other apartments...anything we can do? If not, I will need to find another place for [REDACTED] to go! Please check in with Penn and let me know...
