Do you think Jeffrey will enjoy visiting and spending maybe an evening in the Chateau de Vaux-le-Vicomte in the region of Paris <http://www.vaux-le-vicomte.com/en/> ?

I could put you in contact with the owner of the castle, Alexandre de Vogüé if Jeffrey likes the idea.

OK deal!

Otherwise, I am thinking of a couple of friends who are what we call in French "grandeur & decadence" so I'm sure Jeffrey will enjoy their company but I'm just afraid they would be in Israel for Purim.

Let me send a couple of mails!

You are so sweet! Email me the projects and would love a copy of your cd on next visit :)

I think Jeffrey likes to meet "interesting" people...does that help?

Hello [REDACTED]

Thank you for your detailed response! I hope I will see Jeffrey soon and speak to him about the further steps in this unexpected teeth issue!
Do you know when is he back? Also, in what sense and range shall I think of introducing someone to Jeffrey while he is in Paris? Any ideas you could give me?
You are lucky to work from home, so I hope to meet you next time I come to see Jeffrey. It's just that I had a couple of projects I wanted to tell you about, I could do it by email. and also, I wanted to offer you my CD :)

Thanks,
Simon

Hello Simon...glad the appointment went well...Jeffrey has approved the payment for your next appointment with Dr Magnani to have the cavities filled, but has said no to a consultation with Dr. Lemchen...so please, only have the fillings taken care of, and then hopefully you can speak to Jeffrey about the next steps...
Sorry to hear the appointment on Friday was cancelled...I knew he was super busy that day. Jeffrey is actually in Paris this week and he is asking if there is someone he should meet there? Please let me know!

I am quite lucky and get to work from home when Jeffrey is not around...so I do not come to the city too much...next time Jeffrey is in town and I schedule you, I will for sure try to get you in while I am there ;)

Thanks [REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

I hope you had a lovely weekend. I'm just off Dr. Magnani's, the second cleaning went very well and they gave me an appointment for this Thursday, March 5th, for continuing the work on the xrays and cavities.

He also mentioned I should go and see Dr. Lemchen (orthodontist) for the braces, if I want to go for that solution of course...

Also, unfortunately I couldn't see Jeffrey on Friday as he was running very late. I am wondering how does his schedule look like this week?

In anyway, I would also love to meet you while I am still in the city. Any chances we could have a coffee until Jeffrey's agenda frees up a little bit?

Have a lovely day,
Simon

Simon, Dr. Magnani's office has called and asked that you please come in on Monday March 2nd at 11:15am (instead of whatever time you were scheduled for) Dr. Magnani will go over your xrays and do your second cleaning...

Thanks [REDACTED]
