Ok thx. Appreciate your help.
(I had her go in and check today!?!?!)

I'm not sure what [REDACTED] means. There's a paper in front of the TV with (my handwriting) the network name and password as 8A [REDACTED]

I tried this and it works.

When she was staying here it was probably before my last visit to this apt, because I did change it from the TWC default to this. Maybe she didn't check it recently?

Hi James...I need you to help figure out what the wifi code is for 8A. [REDACTED] says it is not [REDACTED].. she says there was number on the wifi box itself that worked, but she just went to 8A to look, and the number that was on the box is no longer there...I need to know what the proper code is...could you stop over and figure out? no one is staying in 8A at the moment...the door code is 20161

please let me know...thanks
