Subject: meeting?

Dear [REDACTED],

I am emailing you at the suggestion of James Meiskin. James has been trying to arrange a meeting between me and Jeffery for several months, but our respective travel schedules have gotten in the way. I am emailing today to let you know that I will be in NYC for the week of February 8th. If Jeffery is also in town next week, and has some time in his schedule, I would love to have the chance to meet him, and discuss with him what I am doing in biotechnology. I think he could find it interesting on several levels.

Thanks for your help.

Kind Regards, David
