Subject: Hello

The excitement never seems to end! UGH! Hope you are well and someplace enjoying the sunshine. Left Lesley a VM this morning, and just sent an email asking for help getting a position at MSFT - they are an impressive company! Thank you in advance for forwarding it on! Am in the market for a paying job 💎 (hopefully, with a pension) if you can help with this or hear of anything else. The Malala Fund is looking for an Executive Director too if you have any contacts there.

Miss you!!! Am avoiding the press - can I hide out at the island or ranch if they catch up with me? But, really, I was just the financial advisor... 💎 xxoox
