Subject: Your Move...

[REDACTED] ..if you took all the furniture from 10B for you and your room mate to your new apartment would that work for you for the time being? If so, could you move before Dec. 29th? Then, once we get the new furniture sometime in January, you could take all the other stuff you want...

Please let me know...we need to get the floors finished in 10B and the floor guys are hoping to start on Dec. 29th...

Thanks, Lesley
