Monday, Dec. 1st...independant film awards at Cipriani's. For the past three years you donated 10,000 for ballroom chairs for the Gala.

They asked again and it makes a hugh difference. I would LOVE to take you. All young filmmakers- all the actresses and actors go.

Having a good year. Going to L.A. for the weekend for the Academy Governor's Ball...with every studio and Oscar contender in the room. Back Sunday for rich Russian (are there any other kind) art party at Four Seasons restaurant with [REDACTED] auctioning off a piece.

Where are you?

xoxo [REDACTED]

No one knows yet who is winning the Oscar!

Hi [REDACTED]

Just wanted to check in about the chairs for this year's Gothams. The chair donation you secure is always so generous and really makes the room look great, but wanted to see if instead of donating chairs this year your donor might consider a donation to support IFP's many year long programs. As a nonprofit we're always looking for support any way we can, and donating to our year round programs would be a huge boost for IFP. Let me know what you think and as always thank you for your support.

Best,
