Hi Katie...wanted to keep you in the loop...i have spoken with Lena and they will come pick up half our sofa today between 5-6pm as well as the fabric and get started! I told them I need our sofa completed by Nov. 15th as we are having a party this night! They said that should not be a problem...

My store manager spoke to another PPG person. Turns out, thankfully they will adjust things on their end. I don't need to return & re sell the fabric.

Lena is still out sick. Either Prince or his daughter should of called you this afternoon to schedule the picking. You and I had spoke of them taking half of the sectional at a time. Would you mind opening the bolts, or have Prince help you? I feel it would be wise to attach a pieces to the sofa & pillows so they know the correct side to use.

Thanks again Lesley for your patience through all of this.
Sincerely, Katie
