I checked the attic...I see no 2x2 tiles left over of anything...odd..there are lots of subway tiles from ty's bath and the basement bath along with the bigger tiles...but zero 2x2's...why would that be?

Carrera marble is very standard. Very popular. But it's a stone and they vary. I will see Tuesday if she will give us wholesale price. 800 dollars for two shower floors and one of them is tile. Little pricey.

Vicki is on holiday until Tuesday...I don't know the manufacturer for the tile in the Guest Bath...i can go to the attic over the weekend and check. Those tiles I would be ok with Michael purchasing, but It scares me for Michael to buy the master bath Carrera marble tile...I'm sure there are different 'grades' out there and I want what we have.

I will get back to you....

If you have the tile he will provide everything else. I am going to talk to the tile babe about the price of the tile. I am going to try to get Mike to buy the tile. I cant tell him right away. He may assume that . but its hard enough to get them to come back so I just want to get him there. I will work him then. I will call Vicky tomorrow.

Also what is the name of the tile for both showers before you order it may he can get it. Do you have any left over in the attic. Its up the stairs to the right. Let me know.

When are you ready for the tile guy

Hi Bob...i am going to order this tile. I want to make sure you have Michael on the same page..he is coming to do a repair job in the master bath and guest bath at no charge...right? He knows this will take 2/3 days to complete (from what I am told due to drying time) He will come with all the other materials needed...actually I see the drain extensions are not on this invoice, I will order those also..but he will bring whatever else is needed...the grout, etc. Also, I want to make sure that he can come on consecutive days so this is not a long and drawn out project...ok? bummed out we have to do this in the first place...everything looks so nice... :(

Hi [REDACTED]

Attached is the estimate you have requested. If you would like to move forward, I will need to take payment in full. Let me know if you have any questions. All of the material is in-stock so it will take about one week to receive everything.

Thanks,
Vicki
