Jeffrey will purchase you a ticket back to NY on 16th! No problem. Let's just hope he doesn't change the date a million times! I will work on a ticket for you

hello [REDACTED]
yes, that's good.
the airport i will fly out is in bucharest(romania) and its called "otopeni". i would like to ask you something: after i finish the job in paris would you get a ticket for me from paris to new york so i don't have to go back in romania, or paris to bucharest? i have bought already my ticket from bucharest to new york for oct 15th and if i come back bucharest i will need to change my ticket to new york.. anyway, maybe better to not buy for me the ticket back because always we had to change the ticket.. :-) i have the same passport so no changes needed.
thank you,
ion
