I'm at DMV. I am number 76 and they are at 64. Happy [REDACTED] pick up is 3:45 today.

I invited hen and Paula for pizza tomorrow. If they come we should do Riko's if they don't we should try new Canaan pizza.

I recd quote from merc re replacing headlights. They were at $1500 or so. Less than foreign car by $200. She also recommended going to a detail shop and seeing if they might have some type of solvent that will really clean the plastic. Maybe we should try that first
