Subject: do you know of any spa not too$$$

HI [REDACTED]...do either of you know of a spa (with massage, facial, standard stuff) that is not crazy expensive? [REDACTED] is in town and wants to buy [REDACTED] a gift of a spa day but she can't find anything affordable. I don't really go to these places very often so really can't help her...could one of you recommend a place in the city by any chance?
