I am still waiting to pay the guy for the decorative things on our house (can't remember what they are called) because I want to know how much Tony is going to charge for the attic fan. Tony is having the motor fixed and is to come install on Thurs. I will deduct whatever Tony charges me from the total of the roofers invoice

I never sent it to you. You asked for the total and I gave it to you. Just pay them the total minus the twenty two dollars.

Did you pay Gault stone the 1,536.89. I got a bill from them. That was the final walkway.
