I will give you as my h as I can right now!

1. Janusz, Jeffrey's driver will pick up Reid and Joi. He will be driving a big black suburban so luggage will fit fine. Janusz's cell: [REDACTED]
2. Janusz will drive Reid and Joi to PB airport where Jeffrey's plane will be parked.
3. Larry Visoski, Jeffrey's pilot will fly the helicopter to Jeffrey's island
4. One of Jeffrey's employees will meet the helicopter with transportation and get all and luggage to Jeffrey's home on his island.
5. I have no idea on itinerary. I can try to find out.
6. Jeffrey's staff member will get all to the helicopter
7. Larry Visoski will fly Heli back to STT airport
8. Larry will fly Jeffrey's private plane to Boston. If they take the Gulfstream (which they usually do) the tail # [REDACTED] I do not know FBO or airport yet.

I should get approximate weight of both Reid and Joi for the Heli! Approximate weight of the big bag too if possible. Thanks and hope this helps for the time being. Lesley

Hi Lesley,

I will book Reid on a Virgin flight that gets him to Fort Lauderdale by 4:40 pm on 11/28.

If you could please let me and Mika know the rest of the logistics that would be super helpful! And let us know how we can help!

1. car service from Fort Lauderdale airport to wherever the private jet will be parked
2. private flight from Fort Lauderdale to St. Thomas
3. helicopter ride from St. Thomas to Jeffrey's island
4. car from the island to Jeffrey's house
5. tentative itinerary for the duration of the stay
6. car back to the helicopter on 11/30
7. helicopter ride to St. Thomas on 11/30
8. private flight from St. Thomas to Boston, MA on 11/30 (landing in the evening ~8 or 9 pm)

One thing to note is Reid will probably have a large suitcase with him as he will be packing for a 9-day trip. I am sure there is a weight limit on the helicopter ride, so wanted to put it out there.

I will book a car in Boston on 11/30 to take Reid and Joi to their respective hotel and house.

Mika, when you know please let me know which flights Joi will be taking to Fort Lauderdale. Ideally, landing at around the same time as Reid. If he chooses the flights through Atlanta landing him in Fort Lauderdale by 8 pm, that will still work for Reid. Although not super ideal given the longer wait time.

If I am missing anything, please let me know.

Saida
