Universal Houston flight planning indicates STT - Vienna is 9+40min
Long range cruise of .77Mach
We would land with 3000lbs of fuel, which equates to 30 to 45min, VFR fuel reserve. Based on ISA temperatures and current wind factors, also we not guaranteed optimum altitudes, all are factors when trying max distance flight., It's still a maybe but I think the GIV could do it non stop., if fuel calculations run short we could always make a fuel stop in Europe somewhere.,

Hope this helps in your flight planning

Dave and I are scheduled to return to STT tomorrow night at 9:30pm to prep for Possible Paris Wednesday night 10pm., let me know if this trip goes firm?

Thank you
Larry
