Welcome home. I'm trying to find the pieces of your sectional on line so I can get a price quote for reupholstering.
I'm off on Wed, but can come in the morning before if you'd like.
Please let me know.
Thanks, Katie

Hi Katie! I am back from the Bahamas... :)
I hope to work from home on Wednesday and wanted to come in to see you...take a look at any fabrics you may have found. Would this be a good day for you?

Were you able to find the sofa dimensions and get to your re upholster man? I know it is called the Lounge Sectional Sofa from Crate and Barrel...I would assume we would need the same yardage as before...

thanks! [REDACTED]

Hi [REDACTED]
I appreciate all your work. The Rep just called. Fortunately for us another claim came in on the Leo fabric. Now I will look for a replacement fabric for you. Since we have the opportunity to change, do you like the color? I also need to get them a labor quote to re upholster. I'll check the receipt you sent me to see if there is a pattern number for the sofa. I can show that to the upholsterer.

Thanks again for all your patience.
Katie

Hi Katie...sorry for so many emails! I think the pictures I took today in the sunlight show the wear on the sofa better today...The pilling is on every cushion seat and back cushion...it is worse where the seat and the back cushion meet but it is really everywhere...sent you a picture of the arm of the sofa as well which shows significant wear and pilling. I would think this is definite proof the fabric is defective some how...

Please do let me know what JF and the mill have to say. I will be able to read emails while away....

Thanks so much, Lesley Groff
