I don't think JE will be back until after 5...like 5:30...
I think you should go to Home Depot now for sure and do the best you can! thank you!

It leaks whenever kitchen sink is being used and I also wanted to organize the wires and do some paint touch-ups under the kitchen vanity (painting and organizing wires can wait)

Don't worry I will run to Home depot and and buy materials I need to fix the leak but I might not be back at 71 before Mr.Epstein gets back. Is that ok?

Thanks

Hi Lesley,
Please do not put anybody in apartment 11B until the end of next week. I need to repair a couple of things in there next week when JE leaves.

Also, all 7 boxes are now in Bibe's office.

Thank you,
