Subject: apartment situation...Paris?

Hi Larry...i am assuming you and Dave would like an apt for tomorrow night Thurs. July 17, but we only have 11P (and from your last email, I think we need to work on 11P before someone stays again) Unfortunately...both our other guest apartments are taken...I think you will have to get a hotel...

Have you heard anything from JE re when he wants to depart for Paris on Friday?
