Joann said she spoke with Hertz already and confirmed that it would be fine, and that she is all set. Thanks, Christy

Hi Christy...we prepaid for a car for [REDACTED] last month and all worked out fine. It was with Hertz...can you look at record locator [REDACTED] and see what we did? I have gone back and forth with this already and would like to stick with getting the Audi A4 from Hertz if possible..this is what Jeffrey's has OK'd (I told him we were quoted $3493.72 for July 18-Aug. 15) Please let me know...thanks, Lesley

Hi Lesley! Joann told me that you were going with Hertz but wanted to go ahead and give you what information I got. Only company that I could find that would allow the car to be prepaid under Mr. Epstein's name and picked up by [REDACTED] was Auto Europe. Sixt doesn't allow someone else's name, and EuropCar didn't have anything high end for those month rental.

Auto Europe can do a Lexus IS 300H for $3975.31 total. Unlimited miles and they require all insurances, so it would includes VAT taxes, Liability Insurance, Fire Insurance, Collision Damage Waiver (with $2000 USD deductible), Theft Protection ( with same deductible,) They would charge a 500 PLN deposit upon pick up (about $165 USD) that would be refunded if car is returned full of fuel and in same condition.

Also - just a note - if she doesn't have a Polish Drivers Licence, will be required to get an International Drivers License for Poland.

Thanks, Christy
