I wash, fold and iron it. I can't track all the linens and towels for all the apartment I'm not the only one who's in and out in the apartment, I used to have 3 sets but now we need to get a new ones. So it looks nice for the guest. I will let [REDACTED] know about this matter. Thank you!

ok, and then what do you do with the sheets...wash, fold and put back in the closet of the apartment you are cleaning? ..and then you think someone comes back and takes the fresh linens?

Yes it has a sheets some times it more than I have to wash for a guest apartment and the towel looks like been used like a rug. I just don't want the guest accidentally used it and they complain how dirty is he towel for the apartment. Thanks!

Hi Les,

Good morning! Yes the toilet in 11B is working fine. Lesley i just don't know who keep dropping dirty linen in some apartment. When I'm over here I just check the other apartment if it need dusting but I notice the 11P has a dirty linen in the basket sometimes it's in 10B and I know for sure everytime I leave here i make it sure everything is clean and iron all the linen so it's ready for the coming guest. But someone is getting a habit of dropping their dirty linen so i can clean it for them. I know that I'm not supposed to clean their laundry.

Thanks!
