Oh good. We look forward to hosting Jeffrey and his assistant(s) tomorrow.

Best,

Claudia

Claudia, I think this all sounds great...I did forward your mail to Jeffrey so he is aware of Nathan not at the office, etc...but I think it will all be perfect as you have suggested...

Hi [REDACTED]

So here are the directions as follows:

- Seattle to Nathan's Sunset office in Bellevue (approaching from I-5 north/Boeing Field)
- Nathan's Sunset office in Bellevue to Lab

In terms of driving / location efficiency, it would make sense for Jeffrey to drop by the Sunset office first (approaching from I-90) and from our office at Sunset, head to the Lab location in Bellevue.

Please note that Nathan will not be at his Sunset office tomorrow as he has a full meeting at the Lab.
I'd be happy to show Jeffrey Nathan's office though as there are some artifacts he will find interesting.
He can then head to the Lab ... Natalie will be there to greet plus Nathan will step out of his meeting.

Please let us know if this all sounds agreeable. Any questions?

Claudia
