Subject: Why Salaries Shouldn't Be Secret

Top content you're following on LinkedIn

The image shows a preview of a LinkedIn Pulse article. At the top, there is a placeholder for a profile picture (a rectangle with an 'X' inside) and a placeholder for a cover image (a wide, thin rectangle). Below these are two small black squares, likely representing profile icons. To the right, there is a white rectangular box with a black border, possibly representing a video or a featured image. The main content area contains the following text: "Highlight of the day" followed by a wide, thin grey bar. Below that is the title "Why Salaries Shouldn't Be Secret" and the author's name "Felix Salmon on LinkedIn". A horizontal line separates this section from the next one, which starts with "Recommended for you" followed by another wide, thin grey bar. At the bottom of the preview, the text "If You Do This, Your Emails Might Be Rude" is visible.
