>>> Hi Merwin...the bed in apartment 11P is broken...we are thinking you may be able to fix it...We currently have a guest staying there who will depart over the weekend. Tess is to clean 11P on monday...do you think you could go over with her and have a look? I would hate to order a new bed when this one could be repaired...We also have a guest that may need to stay there come next Friday may 16th, so would love if you could get in there early to check on it for us...
