

To: [REDACTED]
From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thur 5/29/2014 6:13:34 PM
Subject: Re: Jeffrey Epstein

Hi Laura...

I think it will be best for the comforter to stay with one of Jeffrey's assistants. Jena lives at the apartment complex and can keep track of it. Jeffrey has several apartments and it depends on scheduling which apartment you will be staying in at any given time. Jena is in charge of leaving the Welcome Letters with the doorman prior to arrival of our guests...once she knows which apartment you will be staying in, she can place the comforter in the apt and retrieve it when you leave. Also, if we left the comforter in an apt, I am afraid another guest could use it (yes, even with your name on it)!

Also, I am not sure what happened, but wanted to let you know of a mix up this past trip of yours...you and Dr. Bard were actually scheduled to stay in apt 11B...I understand you stayed in 11J...we had another guest that was due to stay in 11J, but luckily, the doorman was aware and diverted the guest from 11J to 11B...in the end, everything worked out just fine, but this is why I was confused about your departure and the maid...

Take care, [REDACTED]

On May 28, 2014, at 6:40 PM, [REDACTED] wrote:

Sorry just saw your email. Got a new phone and having trouble with AOL. Yes, we did depart on Monday. Also, wanted to let you know that we left a down comforter in the small closet in the bedroom. It's in a clear bag, with Dr. Bard's name on it. Wanted to leave it so we don't have to transfer it back and forth. If you want to store it somewhere else that would be fine too.

Thanks for everything, we had a wonderful time in NY.
Laura

In a message dated 5/27/2014 9:18:58 A.M. Eastern Daylight Time, [REDACTED] writes:

Hello Laura! hope you had a wonderful weekend...Might you let me know if you are still in the apartment and if so when you plan to vacate? I think our maid tried to go in (sorry!) ..but I thought you were departing at noon on Monday May 26th?

Thanks, [REDACTED]=