thanks appreciate it...I also appreciate you wanting to run with it, but it scares me...
I don't want anyone to get in trouble over something like piano tuning! not worth it.

No we used this company when I was at the Carlyle. I would hate to call Rich B for this but if you say he only likes the previous tuner then I will find out.

Jeffrey would like his piano tuned this week before he returns home...this is something Rich Barnett always handled...can you please coordinate? (I think he would call Steinway and there is a certain tuner who always comes to our house...I'm sure Rich can fill you in!)
