I want it painted the grey color. Epoxy paint? Is that what you called it? The shelving should arrive end of week. I will get you exact date. Can you please forward me the phone number of the shipper for the basketball hoop? Or did you call them? Please let me know. It's been a week now that the shipper has had the thing in their warehouse

I have attached the plant list we went over when we walked the property. Avant Gardens had 97 plants on her list. Her abbreviates were a little bigger but not much. I have seen all the plants and they are nice. Avant Gardens price for the 97 plants was 41,868

I have 145 plants and I will charge 24,500 planted and mulched. 12,000 deposit. Remainder when they are planted.

You still will have to bring in the top soil which I estimate to be about 5 loads (at the cost of it) approximately 650 per load. I will charge you cost for everything else .

We hire your hydro seeder and your sprinkler guy. You just pay the cost of the topsoil and the machine time.

Let me know and I will get the plants up there this week.
