

To: Robert [REDACTED]
From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Mon 4/28/2014 5:22:48 PM
Subject: Re: Groff House

that would be tremendous...I keep looking out front for the drain! it will come and i will leave it in the sink in the game room

On Apr 28, 2014, at 1:19 PM, "Robert" [REDACTED] > wrote:

I will try to get the plumber there before wed

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Monday, April 28, 2014 10:06 AM
To: R Monigan
Cc: Bob Caffrey
Subject: Re: [REDACTED] House

Agree...we needed the drain for that sink which I ordered and is due to arrive today...if we can get a plumber there to install the sink and faucet prior to Wed. Bob it would be ideal...

On Apr 28, 2014, at 9:53 AM, R Monigan <divglass1@hotmail.com> wrote:

Upstairs sink installed would be nice. I have mirrors cut for that as well!

Sent from my iPhone

On Apr 28, 2014, at 9:48 AM, "R Monigan" <divglass1@hotmail.com> wrote:

Hi Lesley,

I will be able to come by Wednesday morning to remove the sink. I will also install the butler's mirror and the hall bathroom mirror.

Ray

> From: [REDACTED]
> Subject: [REDACTED] House
> Date: Mon, 28 Apr 2014 09:25:12 -0400
> CC: [REDACTED]
> To: [REDACTED]
>

> Hi Ray...just checking in...will you come end of the week to install what you can? I spoke to Bob and we agree painting the inside of the pedestal sink black is a good solution to 'hiding' the reflection of an unfinished backside.

>

> Let me know what fits your schedule because I want to make sure you can get in and do what you need to do...

>

> 