Nicole-

Thanks so much for putting the Spaghetti Monsters together! What an act!

Devon was already trying to think of ideas for "next year" on the way home! Now that's a success!!

Thanks to everyone else for their help and hospitality in the lead up to the main event!

Best,
The Christians

Here is a pic of how the glow sticks should be placed for tomorrow night.

Quick tip: wrap w/tape around the entire arm/leg/body. The sticks fall off easily as we learned yesterday.

Also, be sure to give yourself quite a bit of time to do this. Took us a lot longer than we expected to get the kids ready. And be sure to have A LOT of tape.

I will bring extra glow sticks to the show tomorrow in the event you have a mishap.

Good luck to all our spaghetti monsters!! Let's try to get a group picture before they go onstage.
