My father wanted me to get back to you about the arrival and departure for the apartment this weekend. The arrival will be around 2:00pm and the departure on May 4th will be at 4pm. I hope this is ok.
I'm sorry to be late with the information.

Best regards,

[REDACTED]

Hi [REDACTED] We do have an apt for you the May 3 (out may 4?). You will stay in apt 10B, door code is 95818. Please let me know you approximate arrival and departure times when you know them! .. And Jeffrey did not reply to your offer to help pay for the maid. I think it is just all part of the nice deal! But thank you for offering! [REDACTED]

It was such a joy for the family to have an opportunity to use an apartment this week. The use of one of the apartments, when available, is a gracious gift and much appreciated. While there is no way I could compensate you or Jeffrey on the total capital cost, it seems fair that I could pay for the marginal cost of my stay when an apartment is available, i.e., maid's clean-up cost. If you agree with this, please let me know. Certainly such a token payment would not diminish my appreciation for the opportunity.

If you have an apartment available on May 3, it would be much appreciated. If not, it will be totally understood.

I hope you and [REDACTED] have plans for a great Easter and the spring weather allows us to get outside. Thanks again.
