I booked through Amex which is supposed to allow you a late check out (like 4pm) but you need to call the front desk and ask them. Tell them you booked through Amex Centurian and one of the benefits is late checkout (if this is what you need. If you are leaving this am and need to take your stuff with you cause you won't come back to hotel then just check out on your way out). You can call the front desk from the phone in your room. One of the buttons should say "front desk". Just pick up the phone and push that button. The front desk will answer
