I was thnking to ask JE about sending Lyn and Jojo to help but he is to go to NY on 20th and he has a dinner planned with 2 other men at the house. So not sure that would work. Do you have any other helpers ? I worry about you and Janusz trying to get so much done on 19th. Especially when Janusz has to drive to Miami. Maybe we get them a car service. What are your thoughts?
