Subject: tonight!

Hi [REDACTED]...we are still on for tonight, yes? I am actually home today because [REDACTED] was not feeling great and I wanted to get him to the doctor...he has pink eye and they took a swab to check for strep...his ears aren't great either! He is such a trooper...never complains...he did say his eye was bothering him and he wanted to scratch it so bad, but he knows he shouldn't cause he doesn't want it to spread...and I swear...he doesn't touch it! and I know it is hard not to! But he doesn't ... love him...we have been having a great day. He is learning his times tables and doing fantastic. I keep telling him the more repetition the more it will just be automatic ...and he is getting it...

So tonight! Since I am here we could try Inn at Pound Ridge if you wanted..or I am happy to go to Barolo in our town...what do you think? [REDACTED] says he should be home "not late" so probably home by 6...he knows we have plans also so will hurry it up a little. Let me know!

:) [REDACTED]
