HI Sue...wanted to give you more heads up! I am taking holiday with my family April 14-20...looks like Jeffrey should be on the island those dates...he does have on the calendar a possible trip up to Boston for Mon. April 21, so you may be deep in planning that trip the week before...We are going to visit Ike's parents in Sarasota, FL and take a driving trip to Disney World for a couple of nights and do some sight seeing...
