we will do the best we can! I need to think about TX also...it may be a trip in July this year perhaps 9-13..I know Ike wants to be here for July 4th or else I would try to go the same time you may be going out of town...

yes...I am really up in arms over summer calendar as we don't have CO trip sorted out and I can't seem to get anyone from Pat's family or Pat to commit to a timeframe for that trip. I hope you and I can hash out camps anyway and then I will just fit that trip in where we have an open week or a camp that isn't super important.

totally understand...you discuss and let us know...like you said, you could come for an hour and then go home to some beans if need be!
:) (I made chili with beans last night...quite tasty with just a m McCormick's pkg of spices, red kidney beans and diced tomatoes...super fast too)

I think that sounds great but need to clear with my husband as he started a diet yesterday! He will have one cheat day but that will be Saturday or Sunday. I actually really think he needs to do this so I am helping him...he has gained a ton of weight and he is not happy with himself. I will discuss tonight but will still plan to come there to meet you and then I could go home to meet them after practice if need be. Normally he would just find something on the menu but it is a little tough at CS!!
He's doing no carbs or grains or fruits...only meat, beans and veggies...he might be able to get salmon with veggies or something like that I bet.
Let's plan on 6:45 at CS...is that good or whenever you want.

he finally sat down to the computer i suppose!

The boys/our men have practice this friday...would you like to get together while they are at practice at CS with our calendars and go over camps? then the guys could come meet for dinner and we could already have a table? what do you think?

He must have wrote us both back at the same time! I had emailed him in Feb asking him the same thing! Too bad.

Hi Mrs. Garrity,
Sorry for taking so long to respond but sadly we are not having camp this summer. We are very disappointed and wish it could work out but not this summer.
Thank you for being part of our sports camp.

Sincerely,

Ian Knechtle
