Thanks Bill...what an adventure you are on! I will forward to Jeffrey again your second mail with the completed attached documents and see if we can find a time for you to speak within the 8-10AM or PM range...Take care [REDACTED]

Hi [REDACTED]
I am currently in Western Australia which is 13 hours ahead of EST and 10 hours ahead of PST. It's a bit tricky to find the right time to talk, but here we go:

Last Email to you I attached a document to pass to Jeffrey — followed by another Email a few minutes later with the complete document (the first one contained only the introduction to the White Paper). Jeffrey asked that I call him two weeks later, which is now.

I will first want to write him a short Email before we talk — so if we can begin to figure out a time to set up a call, that would be great. From here, I will be in Singapore for a few days (same time zone as Western Australia) and then to Central Java which is one hour earlier than here. I will be in Java from March 4-12 and then go to Dubai for about a week.

I am hopeful we can arrange a suitable time while I am still here in Australia but it would mean an 8-10 AM or PM time for you on the East coast as we are completely the antipode here.

Please let me know what works, and I'd appreciate being sure that he in fact received the completed document (the second one sent) for him to review.

Thanks, stay warm,

W
