[REDACTED] and Rich...Bella is desperately searching for UPS Express Envelopes that were to arrive the house (they look just like Fed Ex envelopes, but they are UPS)...they contain the new Credit Cards she has set up for many employees...the only one see is one addressed to [REDACTED]..the credit card company says they have all been sent and rec'd ....

Rich, did you receive any thing last Thursday? [REDACTED] can you go have another look in Rich's office? I just looked and do not see anything but junk mail, but perhaps items such as this are placed somewhere (not in the open?)

Please let Bella know as soon as possible....since these are CC's it is important.
